DAY 4 : HIROSHIMA / MATSUYAMA / EHIME

(Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

After breakfast, proceed to Aeon Shopping Mall. Next enjoy a stroll along the Shimanami-Kaido Bridge, which provides a scenic splendor of the inland sea where the seven bridges cross-link between Honshu and Shikoku. Thereafter proceed to Towel Museum, a unique museum devoted entirely to towels. The displays feature everything from the basics of towel production to fine finished products. This evening, relax yourself in one of the onsens (hot spring bath) within the hotel.

Accommodation: Dogo Onsen (Matsuyama)

DAY 5 : EHIME / KURASHIKI / OKAYAMA KORAKUEN

(Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

This morning we shall visit Kurashiki City. Our first stop is the famously preserved Kurashiki Canal dated back to the Edo Period (1603-1867). Walking around Kurashiki Bikan area, you will see many old store warehouses that are converted to shops and cafes. We will also visit the popular Momotaro Karakuri Hakubutsukan Museum. You will find this museum both interesting and amusing. Okayama Korakuen is our next stop. This is one of the 3 great gardens in Japan. Constructed in 1687, this magnificent landscape garden is simply breathtaking.
