DAY 4: SUMPY TAKUMI SHUKU / KIWI FRUIT FARM / KAKEGAWA CASTLE / KAKEGAWA SUTENDO GLASS MUSEUM

(Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

Our first stop this morning is Sumpu Takumi Shuku, whereby you can experience the 16th century traditional industry and crafting. After that, it is time for eat-all-you-can kiwi fruit picking at Kiwi Fruit Country Farm. Also available are mandarines and country herbs. From here we proceed to Kakegawa Castle located on a small hill top. Built in the year 1513, this castle was an important link between Kyoto and Eda (Tokyo) during the historical period. A short distance away is the Kakegawa Sutendo (stained) Glass Museum* that housed more than 70 pieces of stained glass with some dated as far back as 19th century from England and France. This is the opportunity for you to view these magnificent glasses at eye-height level, as most of them around can only be seen high up in churches.
